Revelation

by Robert Frost

We make ourselves a place apart
  Behind light word sthat tease and flout.
But oh, the agitated heart
  Till someone find us really out.

'Tis pity if the case require (or so we say) that in the end
We speak the lteral to inspire
  The understanding of a friend.

But so with all, from babes that play at hide-and-seek to God afar,
So all who hide too well away
  Must speak and tell us there they are.
